OWENSMOUTH, CAL., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 2, 1916

Villa must be like the fabled cat with nine lives.

Come out to the Chamber of Commerce entertainment Saturday evening and enjoy the excellent program prepared for the occasion.

The "Golden Rule in Business" is what Owensmouth needs. Don't give your friends and neighbors a slam by spending all your Holiday money elsewhere. Make this Christmas a happy one for your home merchants by patronizing them as far as possible.

The citizens of the West End of the Valley certainly showed the right spirit when they responded so generously to the appeal for assistance in improving the Owensmouth Hi School grounds. A community whose people work together harmoniously on matters of public benefit is sure to prosper.

The announcement that Owensmouth is now receiving its supply of domestic water direct from the San Fernando Reservoir thru the Twelfth Street and Pinehurst lines is welcome news. Hundreds of men are employed in laying the pipes for the permanent irrigation system and a large portion of the valley will be supplied with Owens River Water next season.

William Pettit, formerly of Oxnard, who is now one of the land owners and brokers of the San Fernando Valley, was in Oxnard last evening on a short business trip. Mr. Pettit reports the sale of 100 acres of the San Fernando Valley to Antonio Baptiste, a prosperous rancher of the Las Posas. Mr. Baptiste is one of the local ranchers who has an eye to the future and in his recent investment has shown excellent judgment in selecting the property to do. The San Fernando is forging ahead with leaps and bounds, and with ample water at hand which to irrigate the entire acreage there, the fertility of the soil makes that section one of the choicest agricultural regions in the southern part of the state. Ozard Daily News. The land purchased by Mr. Baptiste is part of the Encino ranch.

Personal and Local Notes

Wallace Anderson has received news of the death of his sister, Mrs. Boatright, at her home in Kansas, Nov. 21.

If you want to know how to remove that pesky corn or stop the toothache, ask Bechtelheimer—he knows—adv.

E. G. Harbold now makes headquarters for his real estate and insurance business at Balater's market, which he finds a very convenient place.

There will be special services in the M. E. Church next Sunday. Dr. John Oliver, District Superintendent of the Fresno District, will preach at 11 a. m. Dr. F. J. Inwood, superintendent of this district, will also be present. All are invited.

A party of Owensmouth people attended the production of "Intolerance" at Clune's Auditorium on evening last week. The members of the party were Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Harbold, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Monroe, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bechtelheimer, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Miller, Miss Stengle, Earl Bridges.

Manager Behymer, promoter of the best Los Angeles musical productions, and dramatic critic, is expected to be present next Wednesday evening at the meeting of the music and drama sections of the woman's club at the home of Mrs. Bechtelheimer, at 8 o'clock. He will give a resume of the best plays coming to Los Angeles this season. This will be a rare opportunity for those interested in good plays and all members are urged to be present. Guests will be welcomed.

A mistake was made last week in announcing the party given by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Kimball Jr. The affair was given in honor of Miss Addie Hiss, instead of Miss Edith, as inadvertently stated.

Merritt Hull, who was for several years manager of the Woods Lumber Co. at Santa Susana, has decided to locate with his family at Bayard, Neb., where he has secured a good position with a large lumber company.

Who would enjoy some of our Oranges or Walnuts more than father, mother, or the home folks back east during the holidays? 4c per pound to any point in the United States, minimum 3c. WELLS-FARGO EXPRESS CO. adv. F. J. Ellison, Agent.

There will be a big box social at the Calabasas school house Saturday evening, Dec. 9. Everybody welcome. All the ladies are invited to bring well filled lunch boxes. A good time is assured. All the money raised will be used for the school Christmas tree. Remember the date, Dec. 9.

A few of E. G. Harbold's friends paid him a surprise visit last week Thursday evening, the occasion being his birthday. Cards and music filled a very enjoyable evening. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Waring, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bechtelheimer, Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Crahn, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Miller.

When the moving-picture people went to Owensmouth to take part of a reel featuring the Los Angeles City School System, for exhibiting in the east, the pupils of the hi school out there staged a Russian Wedding Dance for the occasion, says the Los Angeles Times. This feature may surprise some of our eastern friends who still hug the delusion that the far west has for its sole diversion the war dance of the Piutes and Comanches.

The beet growers of the Owensmouth District have organized the Southern California Beet Growers Association, with Alex Jeffries as president. The other names on the incorporation papers are C. J. Forbes, L. W. Richardson, R. B. Smith, E. S. Edgest. The membership fee is $5. The purposes of the organization, as stated by its promoters, are to protect the interests of beet growers throughout Southern California by united action in various directions; to secure more uniform methods of farming, harvesting crops, etc., and to bring about better labor conditions.
