OWENSMOUTH BRIEFS

With the unimproved condition of the the water this week a rain shower would be a welcome relief, but the threatening clouds have not been a ray of hope.

The Adolph Stock Farm, with improvements on the State Highway near the city, has been the scene of large crowds of people, who have been attracted by the fine display of stock and other exhibits.

It is expected that the fair will be a success.

IN WAR TIME

By LIZIE M. PEABODY.

(Copyright, 1918, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Wearing a military uniform, smiling gloriously, Harry Wynn, with an efficiency badge on his chest, looking through his teeth at a group of children, looked as merry as a bell, as he stood and looked on the merry group of his father's children, who were down the front steps of the house, and then glanced at the sun. It was just fresh from the sky, and though it was hot, it was not so hot as the sun, and he had not yet been on his feet for the first time since he had been in the army.

Meanwhile the shade and breeze had been just what he needed and he had just seated himself on the old bench beneath the big bush when he heard the sound of a motor car.

It was the car of the young stranger in the khaki uniform of the U. S. A.

His first thought was to apologize for her tardiness, but he did not do so, as he was not at all as usual, and he was not at all as usual, and he
