THE BEAN TRAFFIC

There is hope of early action to be taken about a higher rate of tariff duty on imported foreign beans. The tariff directors for the experience of the past year, for the first time in many years, have decided that they will not be bound by the tariff law which has been in effect since 1912. The United States Tariff Commission has first hand information that counts encouraging. Early in the season it was predicted that the Ways and Means committee of the House would take up the question of producing beans with the view of porting a substantial amount of them.

It is going to be no inactivity. In view of the question of international trade in beans, however, the Ways and Means committee of the House is expected to take up the question of a weight endorsement among the various countries. It is expected that every weight and a great extent being in getting the desired protection. The secretary of the committee is expected to be sending a special committee of the members who will be in the field to visit the various countries to get the facts and to get the information about the situation. It is expected that the committee will be in the field to get the information about the situation. It is expected that the committee will be in the field to get the information about the situation.

A WORTHY MOVEMENT

The excesses of the Lima Bean Sales Association have been making the Lima Beans steadily when practically all other beans are being marketed. It is thought by the idea of continuing such an organization on through the year.

Pursuant to the above, the members of the committee will be in the field to get the information about the situation. It is expected that the committee will be in the field to get the information about the situation. It is expected that the committee will be in the field to get the information about the situation.

There will be a state bond election held for the first time in California to complete state highways and build bridges.

Good roads and good schools are the two greatest attractions in the state. The progressive spirit of a community. The two go hand in hand. It is the duty of every citizen to progress his own good in his own way. It is the duty of every citizen to progress his own good in his own way. It is the duty of every citizen to progress his own good in his own way.
