Merry Night for Young Folks

The large, young residence of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Wain was thronged with young people, numbers of them over fifty last Friday evening on the occasion of a special Halloween social under the auspices of the Owensmouth Young League society of the Methodist Church.

The hostess, Mrs. Wain, a lover of that thing that pleases and entertains the young people, had her home beautifully decorated in "Pumpkin" style for the occasion, and for originality and beauty she had even arranged in Owensmouth.

There was a "General Procession" in the center of the hall, groups that were to be seen in the parade for the trial case on the 11th...
