WE ARE ON THE WAY
 Amazing results, more gratifying than surprise, are being met since our last public meeting. There was even a report of agent on this gallantly and every section of the city showing indications of better things.

Organization has been the theme for several weeks, and The Gazette has favored the movement through its columns until we were getting afraid of wearing the subject threadbare.
 It would not be so had it been so ever, as a well defined plan for organizing an upper valley improvement association is now well under way, and developments are in the making.
 The time has arrived for action for building up a strong organization and we have the territory to cover. It is our anxious desire for honest men, ready to give of their strength and all their abilities to the cause.

In electing Dr. Caudron, president of our association, no better selection could have been made. He has demonstrated himself a capable and versatile executive. He has acquainted himself with the valley through extensive observation and visits. While his residence in Owensmouth has been only a little more than a year, yet his value as a good citizen is well known and appreciated. Not willing to sit still and dream over his wealth, he has gone forth and worked from the home-tons, spent his time and given aid to those seeking in mileage to gather information. He has presided on the street, and he has presided before clubs of the valley and brought to light some surprising conditions.

There is no one denying the fact that unless we hold our shoulder to the wheel this time, we will miss the greatest opportunity ever known, and it is our belief that he has taken by the reins. The Gazette appeals to all to stand by President Caudron by attending the meetings, and by your presence influence your neighbor and others to do the right thing.

One of the very essential rules to be strictly enforced in the session of the association is its business and no meeting shall be lengthy and drawn out, yet ample time must be spent in reasonable discussion. There shall be no waste of time. The privilege of being heard shall be granted to every one who desires to speak. The committee will be expected to work, such an organization as one name implies will require expenditures of committee work, and the undersigned couple of each one to follow up on his duty.

We have a dual appeal to make to the folk of labor here in One to the city of Los Angeles, attorney corporations and county officials. The equal to ourselves, and the corporation by attending the meetings, because much depends upon our part taken in the upbuilding of our best and best community. If we are ever to accomplish our aim:
 A single day, at which we are a part, and public utility corporations will be making the ground. requests made; our own without organized. To make our influence felt in the appropriate form, there must be representation. Local bodies will be in making laws, and we forms; there must be widespread cooperation. Every voice given will give us the necessary representation, if we vote together at the election place. While this organization is intended to be a political party, it should be a factor in politics for as a directing measure. Instructing that who is to vote. We need a conviction, a political viewpoint will be necessary, we will be successful and have permanent backing within himself to battle heavy opposition.

 Of the strength of all the above, let us rely on our duty and make for ourselves a record in the future. Let us unite, one that will stand for the future destiny of this great west and valley.

Let us make conditions favorable in the west of valley people to want to live here the rest of their days.
WATER
 And some are glad, but here and there are some who are not.
 Occasional "Wandering Willows" now heads the railway track south the freight depot, build their own water. They make their coffee and then move on to the next stop.
 But Owensmouth wishes its water from these wanderers, being of regular outlet of railway.

Robert Stranahan has four cars owned for hay next week, and he will probably come over clearing up as remainder of the hay. The A. H. shops intermittently, the 3000-ton ranch is one of the large holdings, with approximately 1000 tons. A trailer also has quite a lot left.

The Gazette is published as an independent paper for the promotion of the valley interest.
