C. R. Bennett has taken back room in the store of George W. West, for his real estate and insurance business.

G. E. Crider, who has just completed a residence in North Canoga avenue, moved this week, with his family.

Frank Knapp has had a new car overhauled in front of the C. McPherson garage.

A Mexican, residing at Van Nuys, looked up a moving truck for Joe Martin, Monday afternoon, and was arrested for driving on a public road.

William Seligman has received shipment of baby chicks from the Holy Trinity Ranch of Van Nuys this week. He has a fine flock opposite the warehouse.

Charles B. Semnitz has sold his old building at the corner of Sherman Way and Adams avenue to E. C. "Uppelburg," who is associated with Mr. Whitely. It is understood that real estate office for the company will be opened.

The sale of Black-Red-Duro Jersey cows at the Indian ranch last Friday, had a large attendance of stock buyers, and the buying was quite lively. A Black-Red-Duro cow, which was sold for a good price, had a good record.

Messrs. Lake & Carr, owners of the Holy Trinity Ranch, who have just announced the business office, February 1, at their new building on Sherman Way, and later locate in Los Angeles.

Mr. Carr is now in Los Angeles, and arrangements in the stock, and will be made in the near future.

The Streeter & Riddell company of Van Nuys, has announced a contest for a trip to the Hawaiian Islands, to be given to the person receiving the largest number of votes in the contest. The contest will close Saturday evening, Feb. 25, and the winner will be announced immediately thereafter.

The formal opening of J. A. Haffner's new Ford hotel, built on the site of the old building, February 1st, Monday and Tuesday, will be a program, besides other features. Every body in the upper valley are invited to attend this event at Van Nuys on this date.

The H. B. Haffner orange and lemon ranch near Chalk Hill, a place of beauty just now, as the golden fruit is in season. His brand has one of the best soils for fruiting locations in the valley and some sixty acres of young orchard, is making wonderful development. There are sixty acres altogether, some of which is already bearing.

H. B. Haffner, proprietor of the Holy Trinity Ranch of Van Nuys, is starting out at the present time about 25,000 young lemons baby chicks every week. These chicks to be sold to all parts of Southern California. Many are shipped out by train to other states. The new hatchery building, recently completed, is now in use, which doubles the capacity of the plant.

One of the leading enjoyable social events of the season was the annual banquet of the Sherman Valley Young Men's Club, held at the Sherman Valley in a live organization of the executive committee of the club, which was held last Wednesday evening at Van Nuys and a four-course dinner was served. The program consisted of speaking and singing, and the program was very interesting, which was highly entertaining for all about every member of the past was present.

George Janeway, manager of the Hammond ranch, near Chalk Hill, offered a severe burn on both hands only on Tuesday morning, while lighting the oil stove, which had broken' considerably, after the man below. As it happened, Mr. Janeway acted the part and made for the door, bearing all the over both hands and arms, making some very painful, while lighting the stove was called and dressed accordingly. The hot liquid had already burned that his whole arm is in ailing this week.

Further investigations here out that the Quinto railroad "bump" over all the valley newspapers was not without foundation, according to Van Nuys News. Further developments are in sight, which will carry out railroad plans long in the mind by the officials. A special train carrying officials of the U. S. Railroad Administration, passed over the Chatsworth branch, making stops along the route to allow inspection. There is an shadow of doubt as to the report being true, but up to the present time the railroad officials have not made their plans public.
