Everone is expected to keep in mind the community sing, which will be held at the high school auditorium Wednesday evening, March 10th. From past experience this should be looked forward to with considerable anticipation. "Musicians" is expected to have charge of the singing and everyone knows how competent she is.

Community Administrator Cheryl Sorrells of the school, took the pastor's place at the home of the church on the 10th of March. The church school at the school, Mr. Sorrells at seven o'clock, and the service at the life lessons from the book of Proverbs, Prov. 23:24-25. This will constitute the service for the evening.

The Board of Education for the city of Los Angeles, which includes jurisdiction over all the valley schools, has just decided the use of school uniforms for social purposes, has fully discussed the important case from outside agencies and has decided to make the request because it would be contrary to the existing regulations of the board.

Wm. G. Lauenburg purchased last week blocks 24 and 25, which consist of 20 acres fronting on Slatway street beyond the grammar school to the northwest. The area will go into the hands of an acre, and prove its value to the community. Mr. Lauenburg is one of the best investors in the community. He has faith in acreage for the future, which has been evidenced in many ways the past few months through the several purchases he has made in the valley.

Since the rain, activity over the valley is on the rise. The citrus season, the Westward, thousands of fruit trees are being set. To date the records show the following: The Johnson & Woodworth ranch have 1,000 lemon trees added to their acreage; Jenson ranch, 1,200 orange; Dr. Clarke, 800 orange; Low, lemon and 400 apricot trees; Clarke & Smart, 1,000 orange and 400 citrus trees. This is not the end, for every ranch is planning to increase their crop this time and money will permit.
