FAMOUS DUROC-JERSEY BOAR COMES TO VALLEY

Great Model, the boar that has secured more herd leaders, and has more prize winning sons, than any other boar on the Los Angeles coast, has purchased by L. R. Leggett from the Wagon ranch and is now at the head of Mr.
Leggett's herd at his ranch, north of Van Nuys.

Great Model's sire was the grand champion in Iowa 1916, and his dam was second—bring home—only one year later won the world's grand championship. Great Model is a half-brother to Great Wonder, the largest boar in the world, and the sire of Great Sensation.

At the Los Angeles livestock show last fall, Great Model's pig was a number of the prize. One of his sons heads the R. W. Miller herd at Braney, which is the largest prize herd in the Imperial valley. George Model is the sire of Model Lester, a pig that was purchased by L. R. Hinchock of the Longhorn Herd, a pig that won the New York fair which he paid the winning price $25.

The addition of this boar to the valley will serve to stimulate the breeding of high grade stock.

REDONDO BEACH OPENING

Redondo Beach, the superb, world renowned of Southern California, is making preparations for the biggest in-
