INVESTIGATION OF RAILROAD COMMISSION Governor Refuses to Debate on King Tax Bill

Barnesville—Through the legislature has been introduced a bill that would not only give the railroad commission power to increase rates but also to regulate the railroad commission's jurisdiction in the case of a joint committee of the senate and house.

There has been a great deal of talk about the bill, but no one has as yet been able to get a clear idea of its contents. It is a bill to give the railroad commission power to increase rates, but it is also a bill to give the commission power to regulate the railroad commission's jurisdiction in the case of a joint committee of the senate and house.
