

SPRING-TIME IS HERE

and the Mountains and Canyons are calling you. It is wild-flower time in the beautiful hills. The streams are especially alluring, and the pine trees are green with the voices of spring.

Get out of our "Hiking" folders, walk the paths of this Agency of ours and plan weekend visits. Nature's play ground is waiting for you.

This railway will convey you to the entrance of the "HIKERSLAND"

SUPERVISED

By ETHEL M. FARMER.

"Doris!" called a shrill voice from the doorway. "I told you to lock the door! How can you be so careless?"

"I was just going to lock it," she said, "but I forgot to bring the key."

"You'll have to come in," said the shrill voice, "and see how I can help you."

"What's the matter now, Doris?"

"My Aunt Millie is here again. She's just come from the city. She's so tired. I'll have to go out and get some food for her. I'll be back in a few minutes."

"You'll have to go out and get some food for her. I'll be back in a few minutes."

The Story of Our States

By JONATHAN FRASER XI.—NEW YORK.

The Story of Our States is a series of ten volumes, each dealing with one of the original thirteen states. The volumes are written in a simple, straightforward style, and are suitable for use in schools and libraries. The series is now being published in a new edition, with many new illustrations and maps.
