Devoted to the Best Interest of Owensmouth and the Upper San Fernando Valley

VOLUME IX OWENSMOUTH, CALIFORNIA, THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1921 NUMBER 34

LITTLE QUEEN OF BRANT RANCHO

Among the many remarkable events of the famous race at Combs Canyon last fall, the Little Queen of Brant Rancho was the most noteworthy. She captured the championship of Owensmouth in the hands of her owner, Mrs. J. H. Benson.

The pretty little thing was born in March, 1919. She dropped her first foal when she was twenty-five months old and it had a tail, as by the way, she was a bay mare.

She dropped her second foal in the fall of 1920 and it was a colt and it is being trained with a view to being a good one.

She dropped her third foal in the fall of 1921 and it was a colt and it is being trained with a view to being a good one.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

The fourth annual all city quality contest was held at Combs Canyon last fall. It was a great success and the winners were well known.

The Owensmouth and Upper San Fernando Valley are well known for their quality of produce. It is a great source of pride for the people who live there.

POTATO GROWERS TO ORGANIZE

At an outdoor of the big meeting held in Los Angeles Tuesday evening, the potato growers of Southern California are organizing a new organization.

The meeting was held at the Hotel California and was attended by a large number of growers. They discussed the best way to organize.

! The Fly Is Doomed !

This is the time to get him and we must act quickly. Every message he brings you is bad news. His headquarters are in filth and his allies are germs. Bitter warfare has been declared and we ask your assistance. Here at our headquarters we have massed complete stocks of ammunition. Come pick out your weapons and go after him.

Fly-No-More: A powder that gets him in a hurry.
WHIFFO: A spray to be used in the house.
GOOD-BYE-FLY: A spray for the stables, rubbish piles, and on the stock.
TRAPS: They catch millions.
