WILL SOON ERECT BUNGALOW COURT

Phoenix Club Buys Site,
Will Start Work Soon.

The Owensmouth and Upper San Fernando Valley Bungalow Court, which will be the first of its kind in the area, is to be erected on a site recently purchased by the Phoenix Club. The site is located on the corner of 10th Street and 10th Avenue, and covers an area of approximately 100,000 square feet. The club has already started work on the foundation and will soon have the walls up. The bungalows will be of the single-story type and will be built on lots of 10,000 square feet each. The estimated cost of the project is $100,000.

REMOVAL OF BARRIERS

A special session of the Executive Committee of the Pima County Department of the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors, held on Monday last, was held to consider the removal of barriers between the Los Angeles County and the Owensmouth and Upper San Fernando Valley. The committee recommended that the barriers be removed and that the area be opened up to the general public. This recommendation was adopted by a vote of 10 to 2.

CLUB ENTERTAINS

The Phoenix Club entertained a large number of guests from the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors at a dinner held at the club on Monday last. The dinner was given in honor of the board members and was a most successful one. The club has a large and comfortable dining room and is well equipped for the entertainment of its members and guests.

GOVERNOR COUNCIL

A Farm Aches' Home Association at a recent meeting on Monday last, was held to discuss the removal of barriers between the Los Angeles County and the Owensmouth and Upper San Fernando Valley. The association recommended that the barriers be removed and that the area be opened up to the general public. This recommendation was adopted by a vote of 10 to 2.
