

Don't be the Goat

The customer is the Goat when he bites at one or two specials sold at cost and then pays a big profit on other items.

The customer is the Goat when he tries to buy a food product of National Reputation which has been advertised at a price below cost only to receive the answer "Just add out" and then buys a substitute product at a big profit.

To advertise a well known product at cost and then have on sale only a very small amount is an old, old stunt.

RUNTY HENS NOT DESIRABLE

Illustration Shows at Least One Reason Why They Are Not Recommended and Hence Unprofitable

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture)

Business is not an enterprise in the poultry branch, it is a simple affair of two animals, that is, a factor in a business which is not so profitable as it seems either it is not profitable at all. It has been the experience of many farmers and poultrymen that they are not so much interested in the quality of their stock as they are in the quantity. It is a mistake to think that a large quantity of poor quality stock will pay for itself. It is a mistake to think that a large quantity of poor quality stock will pay for itself. It is a mistake to think that a large quantity of poor quality stock will pay for itself.

Millicent Ends a Feud

By ROBERTY WHITCOMB

(1616) Mrs. Millicent Jones had been called one day by her neighbor, Mrs. John Jones.

"Millicent," she whispered, "what is it? I want you to promise never to do any more of those things."

"I promise, my dear," she answered, "I will do nothing more of the kind."

"You mean you will do nothing more of the kind," she said, "but you will do nothing more of the kind."

"You mean you will do nothing more of the kind," she said, "but you will do nothing more of the kind."

"You mean you will do nothing more of the kind," she said, "but you will do nothing more of the kind."
