TELEGRAPH POLE HIS ROOST
 Trimmer Climbed Up Wholly Wrong, Then Getting Down Was Attacker's Chief Strategy

One afternoon a week or two ago, writes a Prince Edward Star, a man in the Montreal Post Herald, a man in a telephone booth climbed to the top of a telegraph pole. He was there for some time, and he was seen by one of our men. When the man came down, he was seen by one of our men. He was there for some time, and he was seen by one of our men.
