THIS WEEK'S PROGRAM

Our Vocational Serviceman, John McNamee, Crocker-Citizens Bank, will present our feature of the day—a guest speaker, Mr. J. Lyman Goldsmith who is supervisor of Vocational and Practical Arts from the Los Angeles City School system. We know this will be a program that nobody will want to miss.

THE WEEK THAT WAS

Nick Petruso, in charge of the program, introduced Mr. Merle Levine, a special agent for the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company, who showed us a short film, and gave a brief talk about Muscular Dystrophy. Besides being an enlightening talk, it made some of us feel really fortunate to have good health and we all feel better about giving a small donation to the Muscular Dystrophy drive. Here's a special thanks to the following Rotarians who have distributed special kits in order to collect donations for the Muscular Dystrophy drive: Bob Boggis, H. Pierpont Briggs, Len Chenard, Mert Cooke, Tom Craig, Hank Crowley, Ross Dunton, Mike Hayes, Polk Jennings, Bob Kinsman, John McNamee, Ted Todd, and Roger Kirkpatrick, Jr.

John McNamee had as his guest two boys from Chatsworth High School: Bill Hayes who is interested in law; and Steve Washburn who will go into the Forestry Service. Both boys are seniors and it was a real pleasure to have them visit our club.

Another special thanks to Rotarian Tom Craig for plugging CARE, and having Rev. Jim Nessheim collect donations from the group. Rev. Jim began by donating his $5 that he had just won as first prize, and ended up with $150 for this worth while cause! We had two second prizes—Harold Allen won the gift donated by Clarence Palmer, and a third prize, donated by Rev. Jim, was won by Rotarian E. Reimer, a member of the West Dallas, Texas Rotary Club.

NEXT WEEK'S PROGRAM

We will be dark next Wednesday, December 23 because of our annual Christmas Party will be held on December 19, Chatsworth Community Center Building, at 7:00 P. M. sharp for the greatest fellowship hour yet! Dinner at 8:00. Please don't forget your exchange gifts, one for a man and one for a woman, not over $2.

SCUTTLEBUT

Past President E. Montel Miner explained to the Club that the places to make-up, which somehow appeared in the last issue of the Rotochat, were almost all wrong.

Whose ever fault this is, we will have it straightened out with this printing. We don't want any Rotarians having an excuse for missing a meeting, and let it be known that we are still pushing hard for 100% attendance.

There was some comment on the classification of a new proposed member, Gay Minardi, who was not only a Charter Member of our Club, but a Past President. Gay's new classification is Real Estate Agency-Country Property. Gay is known to most Rotarians in the district as the "pill man" but Gay is now active in the Real Estate Business. It sounds to your Editor that Mike Hayes is contemplating financial suicide but he asked for this bit of news to be published: Mike and his Rotary Ann Lee invites all Rotarians, their wives and guests, to an Open House on New Years Day at his home, 22324 Kinzie Street, Chatsworth, between 2:00 P. M. and 8:00 P. M. Mike says that all the refreshments will be on the Hayes'! So if you football fans can get away from the T. V. set, drop by and say hello to Mike and Lee. Roy's horse, Milarkey, ran her first race at Bay Meadows but finished just out of the money. Harold and Cornelia have discovered a new (to them) sport, Ice Hockey. They say it's thrilling, the Sports Arena isn't crowded, and encourage us to attend a game and discover a fascinating sport. Roger Kirkpatrick has had a week's vacation.

The election for officers of the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce saw many Rotarians chosen to serve. Elected were Bruce Pegg, President; Tom Craig, Vice-Pres. Ted Todd, Treasurer; Roy Rogers and Dale Evans Rogers, Honorary Co-Mayors; and Harold Allen, Harry Briggs, Roger Kirkpatrick, John McNamee, and Mike Ragusin as members of the Board of Directors. Congratulations to all—and let's all support the Chamber and our community this year!
