

The following amendments to the By-Laws of the Chatsworth Historical Society are hereby submitted for your consideration and approval in accordance with amendment procedures specified in Article IX of said By-Laws. The General Membership will be asked for approval at the next General Membership meeting June 20, 1967.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

- Section 2. Delete entirely.
Section 3. Re-number to read "Section 2."
Section 4. Re-number to read "Section 3."
Section 5. Re-number to read "Section 4."
Section 6. Re-number to read "Section 5."
Section 7. Re-number to read "Section 6."

Section 7. Add new section as follows:

The Chatsworth Historical Society encourages and respects the following types of membership:

- a. Active Membership - Member has the right to vote and hold a duly elected or appointed office in accordance with these By-Laws, and is also entitled to participate in all activities approved and adopted by the General Membership of the Chatsworth Historical Society. Annual dues for this membership shall be $3.00.
- b. Dual Active Membership - A combined Husband and Wife membership shall constitute a Dual Active Membership and each shall be individually entitled to all rights and privileges appertaining to Active Membership. Annual dues for this membership shall be $5.00.
- c. Life Membership - Member shall be entitled to all rights and privileges appertaining to Active Membership. Lifetime dues for this membership shall be $25.00.
- d. Organizational Membership - This membership entitles an organization and its membership to participate in all activities approved and adopted by the General Membership of the Chatsworth Historical Society. However, Organizational Membership is ineligible to vote or hold office in the Chatsworth Historical Society. Annual dues for this membership shall be $5.00.
- e. Sustaining Membership - This membership carries the same entitlement as described under Organizational Membership with the exception of dues. Annual dues for this membership shall be $10.00.
- f. Senior Membership - Maximum age for qualification of this membership shall be 65 years of age. This membership carries the same entitlement as described under Organizational Membership with the exception of dues. Annual dues for this membership shall be $1.00.

Respectfully submitted,

Ken Levy
Parliamentarian

The following amendments to the By-Laws of the Chatsworth Historical Society are hereby submitted for your consideration and approval in accordance with amendment procedures specified in Article IX of said By-Laws. The General Membership will be asked for approval at the next General Membership meeting June 20, 1967.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP AND DUES

- Section 2. Delete entirely.
Section 3. Re-number to read "Section 2."
Section 4. Re-number to read "Section 3."
Section 5. Re-number to read "Section 4."
Section 6. Re-number to read "Section 5."
Section 7. Re-number to read "Section 6."

Section 7. Add new section as follows:

The Chatsworth Historical Society encourages and respects the following types of membership:

- a. Active Membership - Member has the right to vote and hold a duly elected or appointed office in accordance with these By-Laws, and is also entitled to participate in all activities approved and adopted by the General Membership of the Chatsworth Historical Society. Annual dues for this membership shall be $3.00.
- b. Dual Active Membership - A combined Husband and Wife membership shall constitute a Dual Active Membership and each shall be individually entitled to all rights and privileges appertaining to Active Membership. Annual dues for this membership shall be $5.00.
- c. Life Membership - Member shall be entitled to all rights and privileges appertaining to Active Membership. Lifetime dues for this membership shall be $25.00.
- d. Organizational Membership - This membership entitles an organization and its membership to participate in all activities approved and adopted by the General Membership of the Chatsworth Historical Society. However, Organizational Membership is ineligible to vote or hold office in the Chatsworth Historical Society. Annual dues for this membership shall be $5.00.
- e. Sustaining Membership - This membership carries the same entitlement as described under Organizational Membership with the exception of dues. Annual dues for this membership shall be $10.00.
- f. Senior Membership - Maximum age for qualification of this membership shall be 65 years of age. This membership carries the same entitlement as described under Organizational Membership with the exception of dues. Annual dues for this membership shall be $1.00.

Respectfully submitted,

Ken Levy
Parliamentarian