MEETING NOTICE

The Chatsworth Historical Society will meet on Tuesday, January 19 at 730 p.m. in the Museum at the Homestead Acre.

Following a brief business meeting and refreshments a program outlining the history of the western expansion of the United States of America will take place.

Raymond Glazner, director of "Images of the Past - A Living History Institute," will present an innovative and extremely educational view of this expansion. As tools to express the many facets of the expansion, Glazner will use documents, costumes and artifacts from his history collection.

The program will include hands-on audience participation and promises to be of great interest. Please plan to attend and bring a friend.

Mr. Glazner's professional background includes being a teacher for twenty-five years; he has acted as consultant for the Warren Township Historical Society of New Jersey and for the Smithsonian Institution. He is the author of a set of American History transparencies and a book on Kit Carson. Glazner is a member of the Living History Association and the American Association for State and Local History as well as a fellow of the Company of Military Historians.

The Society would appreciate help with providing cookies or other baked goods for the event. Please call Dottie at 349-2869.

Editor's note: As you read this, Keith and I will be flying to England on a sad mission. My mother, Ella Woodhead, 89, died on December 31 at the Dales in Yorkshire. I'll publish a newsletter upon my return.
