! THE LID'S OFF !

There is a movement afoot amongst certain members of one of our organizations to force the Grapevine to accept liquor advertising; and if we do not, to urge the business houses here to withdraw their advertising from the Grapevine.

Liquor, as we all know, not only contributes to, but is the downfall of man, and it is not our policy as we work for the best interests of Chatsworth, to endorse or encourage anything that would prove detrimental to mankind.

We reserve the right to refuse advertising which we deem objectionable to the best interests of our children, and, in this interest, never shall the Grapevine be held responsible for encouraging our teen-agers to partake of that which is harmful. This "refusal right" is a privilege of all publications and spotted here and there you will find publications who stand upon their principles.

The main purpose of the Grapevine, in its year and half existence, is to bring unity and cooperation amongst the residents and the business people and to promote the best interests of our own community. We appreciate every single advertisement that has appeared in our publication and we feel that perhaps even in a small way we have stimulated business for our merchants. If they wish to withdraw their support of our community paper, they, too, reserve that right, and it would be sad, indeed, if our

Woman's Club

The club rooms were a veritable rose garden for the meeting of the Chatsworth Woman's Club May 8 with beautiful bouquets about the room and on the luncheon tables. Mrs. Wm. McGinnis, chairman of the luncheon committee, was assisted by Mmes. Roscoe Harris, Ray L. Johnson, Jr. LeRoy McCulloch, Horace Weaver, Scott Bradley, Helen Davis, Edna Holland, and Robert Boggis. Grace was offered by Rev. Carl Burns of the Chatsworth Four Square Church, who was a special guest with Mrs. Burns.

Mrs. Robert Cooley, program chairman, presented Mrs. Alice Spurgeon, who fascinated the group with her display and story of her original character dolls. Made with the finest of cotton, she completes their faces with what she terms needle sculpture. All dolls have such perfect balance that they can either stand or sit unsupported. All the clothes & jewelry were also made by her. The little log cabin that housed "The Old Folks at Home" display was also constructed by Mrs. Spurgeon.

We trust that the instigators of this boycott will see the light. Come what may, the Grapevine will not advertise liquor or tobacco in any shape or form.

She showed several group scenes, as well as individual dolls, and concluded with one of herself in a perfect likeness, and one of her husband.

Mrs. Cooley also presented the school chorus, directed by Mrs. Frances Reding, who sang a group of numbers.

Mrs. Kate Sheridan, the president, introduced Harry Robinson chairman of the Canoga Park Chamber of Commerce, who spoke briefly on the Airport bonds.

In a called business session, the group voted to support the Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce in their plans for a July 4th Fiesta.

Special honor was given Mrs. Roxy Bennet, who for several years has been the kitchen helper for the luncheon committees, when she was called from the kitchen to receive a birthday remembrance and hear the group sing "Happy Birthday".

The next meeting of the club will be on May 22, when a buffet luncheon will be served, followed by a business session.

Auxiliary

Members of the Chatsworth Legion Auxiliary who attended the meeting at Legion Hall Wednesday night scarcely recognized the place with its fine new ceiling and venetian blinds.

The president, Mrs. Louise Hillman, conducted the meeting, when several of the reports of officers were given.

Special emphasis was given to Poppy Day, May 25 and 26, when members will be on the streets in their territory, selling veteran's poppies. It is little enough we can do for those veterans who have done so much, and in many cases given their all that we may still enjoy the freedom of our country. So be watching for the poppy ladies, not to hurry by as many do, but to give a generous offering. Part of it will go back to the boys who made them, and the balance to the local Unit treasury for rehabilitation work and for child welfare and education for veterans' children.

The Unit conducted a Food Sale at the Chatsworth Market Saturday as a benefit for their general child welfare fund.

Chatsworth Lake Highlights

By GLENNA SCHRADER

Because of the weather there wasn't a good attendance at the IMPROVEMENT ASSN. meeting but the lease for the playground was signed and we hope to make faster progress on same from now on . . . . .

. . . . . The triple birthday celebration at the HOBBY CLUB on Tuesday, May 10, was really a gala affair especially so because Katherine Slater and her daughter Kay took time off from their jobs to be on hand to help the hostess Emily Trinastich (Katherine's mother) . Such service! The likes of which I have never seen at any former meeting! The ladies really did enjoy it, and of course the highlight of the event was when Roxie Bennett, Eleanor Schmitz and Emily Trinastich opened up their many gifts with squeals of delight as each one was unwrapped. Even the weather (it rained) didn't dampen this affair. Thanks a lot, Katherine and Kay, from all of us. . . . . Another big party was the Tupperware (not again?) Party to which MADELINE MASON was a charming hostess. It took place on the night of Thursday, May 10, and as I was there and made a special point to get the names of everyone present, with correct spelling I hope, you're just going to have to sit through it. You see, if they don't see their names in this column then they won't come to my party next fall! Wilda Werner, Tommy Van Vranken, Jane Voivod, Janice and Della Belkowski, Pat Schrader, May and Dorotha Arell, Mary Ennis, Joann Phillips, Tessa Mason Betty Marcucci, Della Payseno, Harriet Harley, Bonnie Williams, Fritzie Snow and Margaret Roger. . . . . JOANN PHILLIPS is engaged to be married to TOM DE GAULT at a future date which has not as yet been set. . . . . JILL REYNOLDS lost a couple of weeks of school with a bad case of chicken pox. . . . . MARY and OWEN BAUMGARDNER had as house guests for a week their cousins Mr. and Mrs. James Parsons from Big Bear. They report not much snow this winter. During their visit they all went to visit a former Chatsworth resident, Roland Grumman, who built the house next to Iverson's on Topanga Canyon Boulevard and who lives at the present time in L. A. and is critically ill. . . . . A week ago EVELYN and DON E. MARTIN took Mr. and Mrs. Claude E. Martin (Don's folks) to Rand's Roundup on Ventura for a birthday dinner in honor of Claude's 71st birthday. . . . . KATHERINE ENNIS celebrated her 11th birthday on Tuesday May 1 with a lovely party.

WIN FREE GROCERIES!!!

Today, Thursday, will see the beginning of a daily drawing at Shopping Cart Market that will prove mighty interesting to all of us with the "budget blues". Those who register will have a chance to win $1.00 worth of groceries OR MORE every day of the week except Sunday, and here are the official rules:

Register on the official Shopping Cart Identification Card, which is available at the Shopping Cart Market. This initial identification Card is kept permanently for all future drawings. Only one initial registration is permitted per family.

To be eligible for the daily drawing (Monday thru Saturday) it will be necessary for some one of your family to sign the Register Book every day, person signing being 18 years old or over. This book will be kept at Shopping Cart check stand at all times. No purchase is necessary to sign the Register Book. (For example: to win on Monday, your name must be on Monday's list in Register Book.)

Daily drawings will be at closing time, and winning name will be posted on Bulletin Boards. If name is drawn and that family has not registered for that day, the $1.00 worth of groceries is added to the next day's drawing. This is continued until there is a winner. Winning family must claim groceries within two weeks after drawing.

This is a wonderful opportunity to stretch the old budget -- who can't use a few extra groceries now and then? Don't fail to go in and register!!

SUMMERTIME will soon be upon us (we have to wait for school vacation!!) but the exhilaration of big waters (larger than our bath tubs) is beginning its compelling force. Right now the brave ones are hitting their private pools and some are thinking "Why didn't I put in a pool this winter so I'd have it all done by now??"

ROY ROGERS arrived home last Thursday from his 1,000-mile boat trip from Denison, Texas, to New Orleans via the Red and Mississippi Rivers. Four 16' boats from the Yellow Jacket Boat Co. in Denison (one of Roy's interests) made this trip, starting May 2nd and arriving in New Orleans May 9th, averaging 100 miles a day with evening stop-overs at scheduled points for supplies, etc. Much publicity was given this trip by the southern papers and was covered by the Associate and United Press services, and all along the way thousands of people gathered to cheer them on, with personal appearances before scout groups, etc. This trip was intended to be a well-earned vacation but with chores to do and people to greet, Roy arrived home tired but happy.

Then we have in our midst GEORGE and HELEN THOMAS who go for deep-sea fishing, and have gone far and wide in search of the great finned denizens of the depths--- Nova Scotia, the South Seas, Norway, Mexico and Gulf of California. During their membership in the Tuna Club of Catalina, George was president in 1940, and holds the California broadbill swordfish record of 573 lbs. Helen and their son, 17, and daughter, 21, are able sea-faring mates with the captain.

Have a grand and glorious summer vacation, everybody!!
