Scout Breakfast

The Boy Scout Breakfast held last Saturday was a huge success. They netted between $75 and $100 for their treasury. This boost given the troop by Aunt Jemima, Oscar Meyers, Folgers, Pictsweet and Challenge has encouraged the counsellors and the boys to strive on for bigger and greater aspirations. Their goal now is to work toward sending one scout and one explorer scout to the National Jamboree to be held in Pennsylvania in 1957. The two to go will be chosen because of their interest in maintaining the highest examples of scouting, and all the boys are eligible for this honor. The boys are off this weekend camping at Sespi River.

Boys and Girls!

The Tens to Teens Squaredancing will be held at White Oak Hall tomorrow night (Friday the 29th) but not on July 13th. Make a special note of this.

Wanted

HOUSEWIVES: Donations of embroidery, jams, bakery goods, handcraft, etc., is very sorely needed for the Homecraft Booth at the Fiesta. Leave donations at Chatsworth Realty or at the Chatsworth Department Store.

Fiesta News

Everything is going along great guns. The parade has increased by spurts and bounds and to mention all who will participate would take the whole Grapevine, so we won't mention any one's name, but you'll recognize hundreds. Formation of the parade will be at DeSoto and Devonshire, with judging done by Max Schoenfeld, colorful figure here in the West Valley and manager of Devonshire Downs, and his corps of judges.

There will be booths galore at the fairgrounds on Andora, one blk. north of Devonshire. Everything is being done for your enjoyment, even to shade, benches and tables. Ben Boydston is building the stage for the free entertainment, and Al Brain is busily hammering together various booths to order.

Other communities are sending their talents here to participate in this greatest event of all times, so thousands are expected to converge upon little old us.

Business houses: Start decorating up the fronts of your establishments. We notice that Chatsworth Pharmacy and Town & Country are already in there pitching! If you would like to assist in any way, call Chuck Janess at DI 8-1163.

Methodist Conference

The Chatsworth Methodist Church and the community of Chatsworth are very happy that Dr. Harold Hayward has been returned to this charge by the Annual Conference at Redlands for another year. Lloyd Fellows, Jr., of 10701 Owensmouth, a member of the local church and a local preacher, was given his first appointment by the Conference as Minister of Youth in the North Glendale Methodist Church. Lloyd has another year at the USC School of Religion before completing his full seminary course.

Lloyd Fellows, Sr., spent most of the week at the Conference, returning home on Friday, while Dr. and Mrs. Hayward remained until the very end on Sunday.

On Friday Mrs. Patti Hollenbeck of 20917 Devonshire attended the Woman's Day session, where, with Mrs. Hayward, she joined in the San Fernando Valley Woman's Chorus that appeared on the afternoon program.

The Senior MYF attended Youth Day on Saturday, leaving early on Saturday morning and returning in the wee hours of Sunday morning. Those attending were: Leuise Schepler, Patty Maybin, Carol Smith, Norman Jack, Cheryl Rogers, Jim Roesch, Virginia Kimble, Charleen Janess, Gene Bernhard, Jim Woodman, Carlyn Schoonhoven, Gary Briggs, Douglas Watts, David Riley, Ed Fabian; accompanying the young people as counsellors were Lorna Ahlstrom and Betty Straka assisted by Fern Jack and Lila Schepler. The high spot and climax of Youth Day was the evening service in the Greek Theatre, at which three of our very own youth gave their lives to full-time Christian service.

The Youth Choir, with close to 500 participating, rendered two magnificent numbers, "Almighty God of Our Fathers" and "Be Thou My Vision". Five of our girls took part in the choir: Leuise Schepler, Patty Maybin, Carol Smith, Virginia Kimble, and Charleen Janess.

The Conference was a rich and inspiring service for all.

A somewhat preoccupied gentleman was walking down Broadway and did not know his location. He turned to a passerby and said, "Mister, where am I?" The passerby said "You are at the corner of 8th and Broadway."

Mrs. William Schepler had a SLUMBER PARTY Tuesday night, when twelve members of the Lamp Club of Orcutt Park came to her house for a slumberLESS night. In sleeping bags and bed rolls they slept out on the lawn. They came in the afternoon, cooked their dinner, after which they took a moonlight hike to Oakwood Cemetery. In the morning they cooked breakfast and enjoyed another hike, this time to Stony Point. Then they left for their various homes to get some rest!

This reminds us of a story: A love-sick swain took a short cut thru the cemetery one dark and lonely night after seeing Nellie home, and engrossed in his thoughts he inadvertently fell into an open grave. He yelled and scrambled, trying to get out of his predicament, but to no avail. So he settled himself down into one of the damp corners to await daylight. Another love-sick youth took a shortcut thru the same cemetery that same night and also fell into the same open grave. He yelled--he scrambled. In the midst of his gyrations, the youth huddled in the corner, half-asleep, raised and touched the second youth on the shoulder with a cold, damp hand. "No need of trying," he said, "you can't make it."

But he did!!

Last Thursday Chatsworth boys entered our Department Store and relieved the cash register of $55 in coin and currency, and six leather wallets displayed on the counter. The day before two known boys came in and relieved Mrs. Brain of a cigarette lighter. The police were called in and are working this territory.

Before any unhappiness comes into your homes, it would be well for parents to check and ascertain if these items are in their possession. Mrs. Brain will be most lenient and understanding if retribution is made.

Wedding Bells

Diane Meusel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles of Meusel of Ojai and John Loritz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Loritz of Chatsworth, were united in marriage Saturday afternoon, June 9, at Lady of Our Valley Church in Canoga Park.

The bride was lovely in a full-length white lace pleated nylon tulle, wearing a finger-tip veil and carrying white orchids and stephanotis.

Her maid of honor was Cynthia Lake, and the two bridesmaids were Jean Loritz, sister of the groom, and Ann Doe. The attendants all wore blue nylon and carried nosegays of rose carnations. Little Kathy Loritz, niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

Robert Loritz, brother of the groom, was his best man, and Edmund Loritz, Jr., another brother, with Dave Dodd, served as ushers.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at Chatsworth Center.

The groom is a graduate of Canoga Park High School and was a student at Pierce College. He is now attending UCLA where he is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon. The bride is a student at Pierce, where the romance began.

The young couple will make their home in Van Nuys. God's richest blessings on you both.

*****

Two Chatsworth young people, graduates from Sutter, received special awards from the American Legion, given on the basis of Scholarship, Courage, Honor, and Leadership. The fortunate youth were Joan Curtis and Henry Fladwed. They were chosen by members of the A-9 Social Studies class of the school for these characteristics.

The Chatsworth GIRL SCOUT TROOP 81 held their annual camp at Rocky Acres Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday a week ago. This is camping experience for the girls, as they set up their own camp and cook all their meals.

On Tuesday night in a nice ceremony Karin Cruse was awarded her first-class pin, Sue Vaughan received her tenderfoot pin, and Joyce Eisle and Frances Stalkup (both of Woodland Hills) received their senior pins.

The Mariner Troop conducted their entire camp unsupervised and did a fine job. The Scout leader, Mrs. Charles Janess, with her helpers, Mrs. Bessie Braun and Mrs. Anna Werren, counselled the other girls. Mrs. Dorothy Watts was with them one day after which she left for her Red Cross Aquatic Training Course in Fresno. The girls enjoyed swimming in the Watts pool, working for camp skills, and fun around the campfire with song fests and skits.

The beautiful statuary gracing the grounds of RANCHO SAN ANTONIO and in full view of passers-by at the corner of DeSoto and Plummer represents their patron saint, St. Anthony of Padua who lived in the 16th century and ministered to the commonwealth in Italy. The child in his arms is the Christ-child and facing St. Anthony is an average 12-year old American boy with rolled-up jeans and suitcase, which depicts the role of Rancho San Antonio.

The statuary was carved in Italy of white marble and its pedestal is of Texas limestone, and is a donation of Mrs. Louise Niemeyer of North Hollywood in memory of her only son, Major Francis Baird Millison, who was killed in our recent war.

A loving tribute, and beautiful to behold.
