Chatsworth Girl Scout Pine Cone Troop 81

The years have slipped by and last Friday night at White Oak Hall, the girl scouts celebrated their 10th anniversary in a blaze of glory. This event had been looked forward to for several months and all outdid themselves in perfection of conduct and in the gala green-and-yellow decorations which abounded throughout the hall, climaxed with decorated birthday cakes during refreshment hour.

"This Is My Life" depicting the life of the troop was narrated by Carol Snee and the program opened with the general discussion of starting the troop back in '46 among Gordon Watts, Mary Lowery, Virginia Sommerville and Eileen Janess, who has remained their constant guide and leader throughout these many years. As their various events unfolded, awards of merit were given to present scouts.

Those who were made Tenderfoot Scouts were Patsy Asbury, Lynda Barton, Rose Briceno, Joyce Burkhart, Donna Davis, Jill Reynolds, Susan Ruff and Phyllis Soderstrom.

Second Class awards were given to: Allana Altomari, Bonnie McConnell, Susan Spotts, Kathy Steen, Sandra Torgison.

First Class pin to Toni Altomari; Curved Bar to Kathy Morgan.

Proficiency Badges were given to: Allana Altomari, Carol Riley, Betsy Croman, Jeanne Payseno, Judy Sanderson, Joanne Straka, Margaret Riley, Karin Cruse, Toni Altomari, Linda Dahl, Ellouise Marriott and Donna Wassmouth.

Toni Altomari received awards in life saving, foot traveler, pioneer. Karin Cruse, campcraft; Kathy Morgan sports and farmer.

21 year-pins were given to Jeanette Kimble and Mrs. Watts receiving 10-yr. num. Robinson, 5-yr. num.

In the Marine "Capachavi", six ser. awarded, 14 marine. 1 5-point pins. Mildshipm. as gained by Carol Smith and Janess.

Par. and friends crowded into White Oak Hall to witness this outstanding event and among them were former girl scouts who were later introduced to the assemblage. Many adults have helped throughout these many years and recognition was given to them.

M. with Gimbel, Catalpa Neighbor. chairman, spoke of the excellence of our troop and presented M. Janess with a corsage of dollar bills as a gift from all the girls.

The present adult leaders and assistants are, in addition to Mrs. Janess, Mdms. Dorothy Watts, Bess Braun, Ingrid Cruse, Adelaide Altomari, Ann Werren and Blanche Smith.

Because of vision and need, this troop was started and has continued with honor and integrity.

WE DON'T KNOW how they did it, and we're not calling them to find out as we want this to be a surprise, but we wish to thank the POSTOFFICE publicly for the excellent service they rendered our community during this trying, hectic mailing season. The deliveries were made often and in a most efficient manner, and we know we speak the sentiments of all of us living here. To the personnel of our Post Office -- many, many thanks for your excellent service this Christmas season.

The PLANNING COMMISSION has allotted 20' of Owensmouth Avenue to the C & H Chevron Service Station for improvements which Standard Oil will make sometime the early part of this year, giving C & H a frontage of 125' as a major unit.

The Chatsworth BROWNIE
SCOUTS had their Christmas party Monday night at Chatsworth Center, planned by their leader, Mrs. Ray Moon. The group enjoyed games and singing. A special feature of the evening was the investiture ceremony, when seven new girls received their pins -- Gretchen Hollenbeck, Cynthia Cooley, Molly Hughes, Judy Livingston, Alice Kline, Linda Davis, and Helen Hauser. Refreshments in the Christmas motif concluded the evening.

Members of the Canoga Park High PTA BOARD surprised their president, Mrs. Robert Randall, with a pre-Christmas shower of gifts for her hours of service given so unstintingly in behalf of the school.

The CUB SCOUTS enjoyed their annual Christmas Party Wednesday night at Legion Hall. The affair was conducted by the new Cubmaster, Dr. Louis J. Haselfeld, optometrist. The new asst. Cubmaster is Mike Ragusin. Without leaders for several months, the boys are glad to have two such (cont. on page 7)
