The Greatest Power

One day during the last war, a young American soldier was captured by a Japanese soldier who forced the American to march along ahead of him, pricking him in the back now and then with his bayonet.

To keep from showing his fear, and to give himself courage, the American began to whistle. He soon realized that he was whistling the tune of a hymn he had learned in his church at home. As he walked, he thought of that church and of the friends he had made there. He thought of his father and mother, who had sung with him at home the hymns he had learned in Sunday School.

Then he thought he heard someone whistling the same tune along with him. He listened as he whistled. Could it be? ...it was...his Japanese captor. In a few minutes they were walking side by side, singing together the Christian hymns they both had learned...the American in Sunday School, the Japanese in mission school.

Then a strange thing happened. The Japanese suggested that they stop and pray. They knelt together

THE MAN WITH A CONSECRATED CAR

He couldn't speak before a crowd... He couldn't teach a class... But when he came to Sunday School... He brought the folks "enmasse".

He couldn't sing to save his life... In public--couldn't pray... But always his "jalopy" was... Just crammed on each Lord's Day.

And though he couldn't sing, nor teach... Nor even lead in prayer... He listened well; he had a smile... And he was always there.

With all the others whom he brought... Who lived both near and far... And God's work was greatly prospered... For he had a consecrated car.

beside the road. When they got up, the Japanese asked the American to take him as his prisoner... for he felt that only in that way could he live up to the Christianity he had learned from his missionaries.

True Christianity is the greatest reconciling power known to man!

RANDY and SHELLY ROBINSON had several of their little friends in for a pre-Christmas supper Sunday, December 23. Their mother, Mrs. Margie Robinson, prepared and served the meal, and planned the entertainment for the party.

The holiday time was made especially blessed for Mrs. J. R. Walker of 10337 Owensmouth, by having her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Borden Walker and three sons from Florida for a 10-day visit. On Christmas Day they were joined by another son and his family, the Syd Walkers of Chatsworth, and by Mrs. Walker's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. John Quimby of Corona Del Mar. On Monday they had a dinner together, celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Borden Walker and Syd Walker, and on New Year's Day enjoyed a dinner together. The Borden Walkers left to return home the following day.

Members of the JUNIOR MYF of the Community Methodist Church were entertained by Dr. and Mrs. Harold Hayward at their home Wednesday night, after which the girls of the group enjoyed a slumber (?) party at the home of their counselor, Mrs. Ray Johnston.

Saturday, Sunday, and Monday was spent by the entire group with their counselor at Camp Colby.

SUE LIGHTNER of Andora had her first appearance as songstress on TV "Western Varieties" program last Friday. Good, too!

Mr. and Mrs. ALEX SUMMERS enjoyed a holiday visit from Mr. Summers' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Summers and family of Arizona. The holiday season saw a reunion of the family, with the two sisters and husbands, the Shug Fishers of Woodland Hills and the Fred Banks of the San Joaquin Valley, the Alex Summers daughter and husband, the Herbert Toetters of Tujunga, and their won and wife, the James Summers of Chatsworth with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Summers of Fillmore.

LOUIS ZAMPERINI, author of "Devil at my Heels" (a terrific book which is on our Library shelf) and a survivor of 48 days on a raft and later "rescued" by the Japs during World War II, is making a return visit to the Community Methodist Church this coming Sunday night at 7:30 p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. BILL POGUE have been enjoying a few days visit from his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Pogue of Palmdale, who had just returned from a holiday visit with their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Sanderson and daughter Sandra, of Lawton, Oklahoma. The visit was planned as a surprise and made Christmas a much happier time for a lonesome family far from home.

Beginning this Sunday, a FELLOWSHIP CLASS will begin at the First Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. Hughes. Young married couples, and college and business-age young people are invited to attend -- every Sunday morning, 9:45 a.m. Parties and fellowships will be planned in addition to Sunday morning Bible study.

The RALPH HYLANDS on Jordan Avenue have a double celebration on New Years Day, as it is not only their wedding anniversary but also the birthday of son Jim. Marian was beautiful in her wedding gown when friends dropped in for coffee and cake New Years Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lucas and Suzette and Richy of Llano came down last Sunday to visit his cousin and family the Ray Cooks of Santa Susanna Avenue, only to find that the Cooks had gone up to visit them. However, they visited Mrs. Lucas' sister and husband, the Frank Johnsons of Canoga, and other friends and relatives in this vicinity. A later call in the evening found the Cooks home. Richy and Suzette remained overnight with the Cooks, and their parents with the Frank Johnsons. The family returned home the following day. The Lucas family formerly lived in Chatsworth.

New officers elected at the meeting of the ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS of the Comm. Methodist Church were: Pres., Mrs. James Woodman; V. P., Paul Ruff; treas., Laurence Fulmer; Corr. Sec'y, Checks Warner; Rec. Sec'y, Mrs. Erna Snook; Sunshine Chairman, Mrs. Bessie Walker; Hospitality, Mrs. Pearl Wright; Program, Mrs. William Schepler; and Social Comm. Mr. & Mrs. R. Wiseley, Mrs. Edward Ahlstrom, & Lester Swartz.

On Friday, December 17, THELMA FERGUSON of Chatsworth Lake gave birth to twins -- a girl at 1:00 a. m. and a boy at 2:30 a. m., at a doctor's office near the Simi school. The girl, Linda Faye, weighed 6 lbs. 1 oz. and the boy, Kelvin Ray, weighed 6 lbs. 3 oz. Mother and babies are doing fine, and Thelma's sister, Katheryn McNabb of Northridge, is lending a hand for awhile. This makes five children for the Fergusons!

ED HAUSER of 10317 Owensmouth suffered a heart attack Friday morning and was rushed to the Veteran's Hospital in a very critical condition, and of this writing his condition shows very little improvement. Our prayers are with you, Ed.

LESTER SWARTZ of 20905 Devonshire went back to Iowa after Christmas to attend the 50th wedding anniversary celebration of his brother and wife on New Year's Day.

VIRGINIA CRUSE of DeSoto suffered a broken collar bone recently in a fall from her horse.

Mr. Elwyn Wherry, Principal of Northridge Junior High School, will be the speaker at the next general session of the Chatsworth Elementary School PTA to be held Tuesday, January 15, at 1:30 p. m. in the school auditorium. His topic will be "What to Expect in Junior High" in honor and for the benefit of the A-6's who will be attending this meeting.

Some senior High School student will give a short talk on the "Bill of Rights".

Arts and Crafts committees will be featured with a display of local talent to help stimulate participation in the coming District Arts and Crafts Show.

The nominating committee will be chosen.

Mothers from the fifth grade will be hostesses.

GEORGE L. GUSTAFSON, Jr. aviation machinist's mate first class, USN, son of the George Gustafsons of Farralone, has re-enlisted in the Navy while stationed at the Barber's Point Naval Air Station in Hawaii. He entered the service in 1942 and is now attached to Airborne Early Warn. Sq.

Thou Shalt be Saved

AND this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

TOM KERN was home for a few days to spend Christmas with his family; they all motored to Vista to spend Christmas Eve and Day with Mayme's parents, Tom and Jennie Hurban. . . . The BUD MASONS spent their Christmas with Tessa's folks in Tulare. . . . The FOUNTAIN of the WORLD had their special program for the children there and friends and neighbors who cared to join them, on the eve of December 27. Bonnie Averyl's students participated as well as those of the Fountain. Delicious cupcakes, hot chocolate and coffee was served after the program. I was there and was so impressed by how spotless everything is. . . . The AL MARCUCCI family went to San Francisco for the New Years week-end. . . . The PAUL ENNIS family had their Christmas dinner with Mary's brother's family in Torrance. . . . KEN AMAR is sporting a new 1957 Chevy Station Wagon and that's supposed to be real news!

"I believe my husband is the most generous man in the world."
 "How's that?"
 "Well, I gave him a doz. of the loveliest neckties for Christmas and he took them right down and gave them to the Salvation Army!"

Live daily with God--
 He is no stranger!

Mrs. HELEN DAVIS and Mrs. HELEN MELLINI entertained with an open house for 100 guests Sunday afternoon at the Davis' home.

The Davis family is very happy that their goose "Peeper" won a radio in a drawing for Red Cross Hungarian Relief.

Christmas at the JONREED LAURITZEN home was additionally happy by the arrival of their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Barlow, and five-month-old daughter, Karilean, who celebrated her very first Christmas. The Barlows remained until December 27, when they returned to their home in Utah.

Mr. and Mrs. HAROLD SUNDE returned home New Year's Eve from a Christmas vacation spent in Palm Springs.

DICK DAVIS had a post-Christmas party on December 26.

Rev. Carl Burns of the FOURSQUARE CHURCH reports a full house last Sunday morning, when Dr. Howard Courtney, Vice President and General Field Supervisor of the International Foursquare Church, brought the morning message.

Some time ago we said we'd like to print some news of you folks over there in Santa Susana, but as yet no one has taken us up on it.

An English cub reporter, frequently reprimanded for relating too many details and warned to be brief, turned in the following:

"A shooting affair occurred last night. Sir Dwight Hopeless, a guest at Lady Panmore's ball, complained of feeling ill, took his hat, his coat, his departure, no notice to his friends, a taxi, a pistol from his pocket and finally his life. Nice chap. Regrets and all that sort of thing."

Did you ever stop to wonder who invented the old-fashioned stove--or bifocal glasses -- who first advocated the use of copper for roofs -- who conceived of a damper for chimneys -- who first pointed out that white is the coolest thing to wear in summer -- who invented the long pole that is now used in grocery stores to reach articles on top shelves -- who thought of a combined chair and step-ladder -- who was responsible for the paving and lighting of streets -- who thought it would be nice to have trees bordering both sides of streets -- who formed the first library company -- the first fire company-- the first American fire insurance company -- who founded the dead letter office and the penny post-- who was responsible for American university education? Well, it was Benjamin Franklin, who incidentally was the first president of America's oldest university -- the University of Pennsylvania.

--The Fusion Point

A traveler seeking advertisements for a local paper called at the village grocer's. Upon presenting his card, he was surprised when the gray-haired proprietor said: "Nothing doing. Been established eighty years, and never advertised."

"Excuse me, sir, but what is that building on the hill?" asked the traveler.

"The village church", said the other, and reckon it's been there about three hundred years."

"Well," was the reply, "they still ring the bell!"

Farmer (to new hired hand):

Where's that mule I told you to take out and have shod?"

New Hand: "Did you say 'shod'? I thought you said 'shot' and I've just been buryin' her."

Judge: "Are you guilty or not guilty?" Prisoner: "Seems to me that's a mighty personal question!"

Some Horse Tales

It seems young colts (four-legged kind) cause a heap of trouble and concern for their owners. The Lightners of 9818 Andora presented their daughter Sue with a young filly Christmas Eve and an hour later said filly was among the missing, having jumped her stall. Frantic searching went on for hours amid crocodile tears, and after placing placards about town Peterson's Dairy on Plummer were instrumental in uniting rescuers, colt and owners on Wednesday after Christmas. Said filly is anchored securely until she learns to behave.

Here's another horse story: The Faskens of 10655 DeSoto bus acquired a mare some months back and woman's intuition was that she was in foal, but upon questioning the previous owner he discounted any such miracle (how stupid can a woman get?) Later a vet also added his negative response to the lady's inquiry. On the morning of December 31 Zanzibar, the mare, gave birth to a little filly and this little youngster was standing there in all her glory when the family chanced to see her. Now, who's going to doubt woman's intuition?? Are the Fasken's happy? Of course!

HOME NURSING COURSE, sponsored by the Chatsworth PTA and Civil Defense will begin next Monday night from 7:00 to 9:00 and is scheduled for every Monday and Wednesday night with a qualified instructor from the Red Cross, in the local school auditorium.

The JOE APRUZZESES on DeSoto Avenue entertained 17 for dinner on New Year's Day. The topic of discussion that day centered completely around the new 1957 black Thunderbird with red leather seats that Joe brought home for mama the day before. Joe sez to mama "Now that the children are grown and away, we're going to get sporty." We say "hurray" for poppa.

A JEAN TEENAGE DANCE scheduled for January 19 at Chatsworth Center from 8:00 to 11:00, and sponsored by the Chatsworth Woman's Club! Everybody wear jeans.

ALAN MCGILL, outstanding baritone recording artist, is the guest soloist at the Men's Club dinner meeting "Ladies Night" at the Chatsworth Methodist Church next Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m. See the president, Jack O'Shea of JR Trading Post, for reservations.

MORE CHATSWORTH LAKE:

Wm. Hartill of Gary, Ind., nephew of Mary and Owen Baumgardner, was here to spend the holidays with them. Gary Briggs' 12th birthday is December 15, but he celebrated with a party on the 17th. Those to join in the fun were Robert Hill, Joe and Dan Mason, Arnie Snow, and Ronnie and Jodie Payseno. May Arell has been ill in bed with kidney poisoning. Nellie Reynolds and daughter Myrna are home from a two-weeks' trip to Oklahoma, visiting relatives there.

GILBERT SHADWICK, of the former Shadwick family on Devonshire, and his family from Whittier, visited in Chatsworth Sunday with Sparkyl Miller Allison, and also visited with Clara Mae Kimble at the Northridge Hospital, who is recovering from major surgery. (She is expected to be home by the time you read this.)

Mrs. CARRIE MARTIN of 10414 Variel arrived home last Friday night from a week's trip to Washington with her son Jack and grandson, the purpose of the trip being to drive the grandson back to his army post. Visits with friends in Oregon, and in Redding and Paradise, California, completed a most enjoyable trip.

The Junior fellowship group of the First BAPTIST Church (a group similar to Junior high groups, only 6th-graders and under) has "adopted" a child in the Children's Baptist Home, and have pledged a certain amount of their offerings each month to his support, as well as taking on the personal responsibility of sending him letters and spending money, and birthday remembrances.
