January is the month for the March of Dimes!

Tuesday, January 28, has been set for the "Mothers' March", when the mothers (and other interested people) go out together and collect money which will be used to give help to many afflicted with infantile paralysis.

Last year Chatsworth gave as its share $413.60 -- please give from the bottom of your hearts when your doorbell is rung on Tuesday, January 28.

Volunteers are needed, so if you can help out please call Mrs. Hank Watson at DI 8-7438.

mother of Walter Eckstein, who will be 93 years old in March. She stood on the steps and sang along happily with the carollers.

Our Best Wishes

Mr. and Mrs. Ora V. Johnson of 10126 Owensmouth Ave. have announced the engagement of their lovely daughter Freda to Richard E. (Dick) Kranzler, son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Kranzler of Reseda. Dick, who is presently stationed at San Diego with the U. S. Navy, was home on leave over the Christmas holidays and presented Freda with her ring on Dec. 20.

The romance began when the Kranzler's were next-door neighbors to the Johnson's on Owensmouth, and continued when Dick's parents moved to Reseda.

Freda is a Senior at Canoga Hi, and Dick graduated from that school last year.

Their many, many friends join in congratulations, and best wishes for a future that will surpass in happiness anything that can be imagined!

In a recent issue of the Grapevine, Mark White was suggested as the possible oldest resident of Chatsworth, when he had his 91st birthday in December. But carollers from the Methodist Church found another even older during their evening of carolling before Christmas. This is Mrs. Eckstein,

An old corral at Rancho San Antonio, Boys Town of the West, will be used by engineering students watching for satellites, according to Engineer Donald M. May, director of the Moonwatch Station. The station was formerly located in Van Nuys.

A nearby building at Rancho San Antonio has been set aside for use as an electronic headquarters, and will house short-wave receivers, a ham radio station, a tape recorder, an intercom and a large table for sky charts, as well as storage space for the telescopes when not in use.

When in operation 15 specially built telescopes will scan the entire sky at one time. Information detected will be verified on sky charts and will be reported by telephone to the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory in Cambridge, Mass.

The station will be manned by Moonwatch teams and teams composed of high-school students who are members of the Future Engineers of America.

Approximately 200 students and other interested Valley residents have signed up with the station. Maurice Neuman, Van Nuys High School science instructor, will train the teams in observation methods and reporting.

Electronic team captain is William Schmidt, who will train students in the use and coordination of electronic gear in tracking satellites.

AGNES SANFORD, noted author and Christian lecturer, will be the speaker at the Methodist Church on Tuesday, January 21, at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Sanford was born in China, the daughter of Southern Presbyterian missionary parents. She received her education both in China and America, returning to China to teach at St. Mary's School, Shanghai, and at Soochow Academy. It was here she met and married the Rev. Edgar L. Sanford. When home on furlough, he accepted a call to Trinity Church, Moorestown, New Jersey, where they have lived for twenty-three years.

Her books are THE HEALING LIGHT, a textbook on healing prayer; OH, WATCHMAN and THE LOST SHEPHERD, novels on healing; and LET'S BELIEVE, a book on prayers for little children.

The meeting is open to the public and anyone interested in hearing her message is cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. HENRY HEYNEMANN entertained Saturday evening, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Walter Turner of Ohio, who are visiting their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Long of Granada Hills. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Ditto, and Mr. and Mrs. Lakey, Jr. of Chatsworth, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Norcross of Canoga Park.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Johnson entertained with a buffet dinner Sunday in a reunion of Katharine's relatives. Guests were her brothers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. A W. Walton of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Merle Walton of L.A., with their son, Louis, and wife; son Richard and fiancée Sheryl Franklin. Mr. and Mrs. Miles Walton of Manhattan Beach, their son Douglas and wife, daughter Barbara, and her fiancée, Walter McKibbin; the Sr. Ewalts, Ray Cooks, and the Charles Johnsons.

The first meeting of the Chatsworth WOMAN'S CLUB for 1958 will be held Tuesday, January 14, at the club rooms. Mrs. Leslie Hadley, program chairman, will present our own Mrs. Earl Muehlenbach in a lecture on "American Indians". Mrs. Muehlenbach and her husband became interested in the Indians about ten years ago on one of their vacation tours and have since made a concentrated study of them. Mrs. Muehlenbach will present the history of the Indians from the ancient times to the present transition in modern times. She will illustrate her lecture with slides, and will display some of her prize curios.

Members are asked to bring contributions of clothing for the Indian Center in Los Angeles, as there is a real need among the Indians who came here to work in the various plants and have since been laid off.

Luncheon will be served by Mrs. William Mandel and her committee.

The president, Mrs. Arthur Young, will preside over the meeting.
