Summer Party

Members of the Chatsworth Woman's Club and their guests, prospective members of the club, spent a most enjoyable afternoon Tuesday at the hillside home of Mrs. J. Dean Park, as guests of the executive board of the club. This is an annual summer affair of the club, so planned that the names of new members may appear in the year book in the fall.

The group was entertained by The Swinging Six, accordionists, who presented several groups of numbers during the afternoon. These young people will enter the Western States Accordion Festival at the Long Beach Municipal Auditorium August 9 and 10. Over four thousand contestants are expected, some coming as far as Geely, Colorado.

Rev. and Mrs. J. WESLEY NEAL and sons Ronnie and David are attending the family Camp of the Methodist Church this week, where Rev. Neal is assisting on the faculty.

Junior high young people, along with adult leader Mrs. Durk Haskell, are at Camp Colby for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. K. BAILE left last week for a vacation trip to the Puget Sound area, where we understand that fishing will be the chief interest and excitement.

Moonwatch Reception

Dale Evans and Roy Rogers, honorary Mayors of Chatsworth, and Jack O'Shea, honorary Sheriff, were given honorary memberships in the San Fernando Valley Moonwatch Station at a reception last evening at 7:30 p.m. at the Moonwatch Station's site on the grounds of Rancho San Antonio, 21000 Plummer, at DeSoto.

The reception was given by Donald M. May, director of the Station, honoring Walter A. Munn, field representative of the Smithsonian Institute Astrophysical Observatory in Cambridge, Mass. Mr. Munn plans to spend two days at the Chatsworth facility as part of his tour of Southern California Moonwatch Stations sponsored by the Smithsonian Institute.

Mrs. Neal Jackson, president of the Northridge Woman's Club, was in charge of decorating, serving, and receiving guests.

Following the reception, Mr. Munn addressed a meeting of the Moonwatch Team.

Rev. Charles T. Hughes of the FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH and several of the senior high young people are spending the week at Forest Home in the San Bernardino mountains.

Little CATHY GETCHIUS, weight $1\frac{1}{2}$ lbs. at birth June 27, now weighs a little over 2 lbs. at St. Joseph Hospital in Burbank. Feeding problems have hindered her progress, and Mrs. Getchius thanks everyone for prayers, as she feels this is all that has kept Cathy alive. The Getchius' live at 9241 Jordan Avenue.

FRANCINA ROESCH of Variel Ave. has returned from $2\frac{1}{2}$ weeks in Washington, visiting with her daughter Gretchen, her son-in-law, and family.

LET JANESS MOVE YOU!

Della Lunden will open her home at 22820 Califa, Woodland Hills, to a board meeting of Canoga Park BUSINESS AND PROFESSIONAL WOMEN'S CLUB on August 5 at 8:00 p.m. Several of our Chatsworth professional women belong to this club.

The evening's agenda includes final plans for the Moonlight Picnic, to be held on Dr. Gladys Wackerli's ranch in Northridge, on August 23.

The social hour will include swimming, following the meeting, and all club members are invited to this portion of the evening.

Did you know that in the United States we are breeding about 50,000,000 kittens and 35,000,000 puppies every year? That is a too simple statement and doesn't reveal the result which is cruelty and suffering on a scale so great that it staggers the imagination. It is impossible to absorb such a surplus of pets in American families. The result: pregnant cats and dogs, or kittens and mothers, and puppies are dumped off into the open Highways, or tied in sack and dumped onto combustible rubbish! Millions of these poor creatures roam the United States, and the City Pounds put thousands to death each month. This mass slaughter is even humane in retrospect. But why this slaughter, this inhumanity, when it could be stopped by controlled breeding? Surely, you are sometimes fortunate enough to find "Homes" for your pets, but do you investigate what these homes are?

The Humane Society of the United States, the Veterinary Medical Association of the U. S. and many small animal welfare organizations know the desperate need for reform, and now a new organization has been formed to serve the West Valley. Their program is to beseech the pet owners to have female pets spayed, and they will give advice and financial help where needed. They are people who through the years have found the task of dealing with the abandoned animals too great to deal with, so they became organized as the WEST VALLEY BRANCH OF PET ASSISTANCE FOUNDATION. This is a non-profit organization and as such is permitted to solicit paying membership, but also they are in need for active members.

For any pet problem or legitimate cruelty case, please call DI 7-4173 or evenings only, DI 8-2046.

HAWAIIAN SHIPMENTS THROUGH JANESS

KEN and LINDA OLSON, along with 11-months old daughter Cindy, will leave by plane Saturday for a two-weeks visit with Ken's family and friends in St. Paul, Minnesota. Linda will also have the pleasure with a visit with the girl who was maid of honor at their wedding, who will soon leave for the Mission field.

Twenty of the boys of the CHATSWORTH BOY SCOUT TROOP 26 went to Camp Whitsett last week, where they had a wonderful time. Those attending the camp were Kevin Miller, Mark Tieben, Larry Mitchell, Jerry Ahlstrom, Alan Pettebone, David and Ronnie Neal, Bobby Rinehart, Kenny Williams, Bill Padgett, Bob Huggins, Ronald Coleman, Bob Crone, Bill Luce, Wesley Trombley, Jeff Burkhart, Jerry Stricklin, James Hyland, Randy Johnson, and Todd Vogel.

Adult leaders who were with the boys all or part of the week were Scoutmaster Carl Henneman, Harry Coleman, Rev. J. Wesley Neal, Robert Huggins, and Jay Luce.

The group is sponsored by the Methodist Men of the First Methodist Church, who helped the boys financially and made it possible for the group to go.

FRAN and JIM BLIGH of Shopping Cart Market have had quite a houseful of company the past couple of weeks. Jim's sister-in-law, Mrs. Eleanor Bligh, her daughter Barbara, 18, and son Michael, 18 mos., arrived from New York on June 30. Then a week later Frances's cousin, Betty Ann Gallentie, a registered nurse, and her travelling companion, Eileen Hoffbauer, who is a teacher of nursing, arrived from Wisconsin. When everyone leaves on the 31st (today!) the Bligh household will become painfully quiet - and Jim can come down off the chandelier and once more reign as master of the house.
