Sign Up For Baseball

This is the last weekend for boys of all ages to sign up for this season of Jr. League Baseball! Boys are asked to phone or see Rod McKenzie, 16753 Andover, DI 8-4877, or Dennis Tanis, 10222 Variel, DI 8-7070.

Try-outs for new boys between the ages of 9 and 12 will be held at Orcutt Park on Saturday, March 7, from 10:00 to 1:00 p.m. on diamond number 1. Boys who have not signed up may sign up at the park before and during try-outs.

Post Office Dedication

Dedication ceremonies for the new Chatsworth Post Office will be held on Saturday, March 14, at 3:30 p.m. in the rear of the new building at 10316 Santa Susana Ave. The public is invited to attend, and the occasion warrants a fine attendance of citizens.

Dave Latham will be master of ceremonies, and the color guard will be here from the Nike Base.

Several distinguished guests will be present, and these will be listed in the next issue with the program for the afternoon.

CHAMBER MEETING

The Chatsworth Chamber of Commerce will hold its regular general monthly meeting on Tuesday, March 10, at 8:00 p.m. at the Chatsworth Center Building, with Councilman Pat McGee speaking to the group regarding streets and sidewalks in our community. This will be an opportunity to meet our councilman, and to ask question about any problem you may have in this regard. This meeting is open to the general public - invite your friends and neighbors to this program of civic interest!

BOB WALSH was installed in his 2nd term of office with Amer. Vet. of W. Valley as Commander recently.

CANOGA CAVALIERS

On March 8 at 3:30 p.m. the newly formed Post #2 of Canoga Cavaliers will demonstrate the technicality of cavalry drills to the public, at Thunderhead Ranch, 9200 Canoga Avenue.

All pre-teen and teen-age girls and boys who are interested in joining one of the largest and fastest growing youth organizations are invited to be there with your parents. There will be senior officers in khaki uniforms who will answer your questions.

You need not have a horse, or know how to ride to join. For information call DI 4-2407, DI 0-9139 or DI 0-5210.

The annual CUB SCOUT Blue and Gold Dinner was held Friday night at Chatsworth Hall with a fine attendance. The meal was arranged by Mens, with the den mothers contacting parents of the boys in their den for contributions for their assembled meal, and each den with their families sat together.

Cubmaster Roger Cade presided over the meeting and program. J. King Ross of Colonial Kennels in Northridge provided interesting entertainment for all with his "Poodleaires". Mr. Ross is the father of one of the den mothers, Mrs. Val Wangsgard.

Awards were made to the following boys: Mike Davey, James Dawson, Robert Davis, Jerry Wilkerson, Alvin Hills, Bill Patrick, Robert Avila, Tyler Marriott, Steven Ragusin, Mike Robe, Victor Hills, George Lorbeer, Fred Wells, Chris Wangsgard, Stephen Werren, John Cade, and Tommy Wisdom.

Boys welcomed into the group as Bobcats were Randy Starkey, Michael Michelson, Jerry Davis, Kristopher Gregg, Martin Stern, Michael Walsh, and Arnold Cohen.

Mrs. JOHN BALINT underwent surgery Monday morning for a vericose vein condition.

ORAN WELLS is recovering at home following surgery last week.

WHAT A LIFETIME'S RxS ARE WORTH

At today's prices, the prescriptions needed by the average person would cost about $750--during his entire lifetime. A lot of money? It's less than a third the cost of a car that has to be replaced every few years. It's less than the cost of 2 or 3 vacations. Yet it buys a lifetime's worth of potent, health-giving drugs. That's why we say...

TODAY'S PRESCRIPTION IS THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN HISTORY

CAROL and J.V. GADDY (Carol Riley) miraculously escaped serious injury last week when they were hit broadside as they were proceeding through an intersection with the green light in an Alabama town, where they are visiting with J.V.'s parents. Fortunately, their two-months old baby Monica Marie had been left with its grandparents. They both received cuts and bruises and were shaken up severely, as the car overturned on its side after being struck on the driver's side. The Gaddy's will be living in the east for two or three years.

The public is invited to a one-man show of Expressionism Art by GRACE ANDRIOLA PURPURA at Onea's Art Gallery, 10246 Topanga Canyon, through March. Gallery hours are 10:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. daily.

Mrs. Andriola is a resident of Chatsworth where she makes her home with her husband and three children. Her exhibit consists of various media---oils, watercolors, ink drawings, enamel on copper, and paintings on cork. Her works range from deep tones to light, soft, pastels.

Mrs. Andriola has exhibited paintings at the Denver Museum of Art, Studio 44 in San Francisco, at the Canon City Blossom Art Festival, and also in Italy.

The CHATSWORTH WOMEN'S CLUB will hold their annual Reciprocity and Federation Day, Tuesday, March 10, at the club rooms, when they will entertain presidents of other clubs in the District as well as Federation officers.

Mrs. Scott Bradley, program chairman, will present as the entertainer for the afternoon Mrs. Carol Spere, in "Folk Songs and Spirituals". Luncheon at 12:30 p.m. will be served by Mrs. P. J. Keith and Mrs. Robert Cooley, co-chairmen, and their committee.

Members were entertained at the meeting last week by Happy King, handwriting expert, who analyzed the characteristics of members present through samples of their handwriting. Mrs. King, who has analyzed the handwriting of many famous people, is now using Graphology to test the aptitudes of applicants applying for various jobs. In a clever and humorous way she explained both the good and less-good traits of character so that all thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

President Mrs. Glen Beyer presided over a short business meeting that preceded the program. Mrs. Guy Clark and Mrs. Alice Roach, co-chairmen, served a smorgasbord luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

The house chairman, Mrs. Robert Liddle, asked for a kitchen shower of needed dishes and kitchen equipment to be brought to the next meeting. Members please take note and contact Mrs. Liddle, DI 0-3849, if in doubt what to bring.

NEW OWNERS have taken over the CHATSWORTH MARKET on Topanga near Devonshire, offering service, competitive prices, and courtesy. Horace W. Lyon, former owner of the Woodland Hills Market, has been in the grocery business for 19 yrs, 14 of which were spent at the Woodland Hills location. He originally came from Arizona where he worked for a large chain market, and he now lives in Woodland Hills with his wife Gladys and daughter Peggy. Chatsworth seems like home though, because they know so many of the valley residents.

One door will remain closed while the store is in process of remodelling. The store will be open Sundays.

The new store manager is Terry Shebanek - drop in and introduce yourself to him!

The new owner at the meat counter is Bill Patrick, who will be specializing in Ruchti Bros. beef and will carry only top quality meats. He has been in the butchering business for ten years and is formerly with the Meat Mart in Reseda. He is originally from Indiana and has been a Valley resident since 1953, residing in Woodland Hills with his wife, Marilyn, and their six children.

Chatsworth welcomes you!

RUSSELL McELVAIN, whose presence is missed behind the counter of the Chatsworth Meat Market since the new owners took over, has completed over 25 years of service to the community in this store. He began as a butcher in the market when it was owned by Mr. Snowden and later by E. L. Johnson. Eventually, Mr. McElvain bought the entire establishment which he and Mrs. McElvain operated with the help of necessary auxiliary clerks. About three years ago he leased the store to Mr. and Mrs. John Bradley but retained the meat market until a month ago, when the entire property was sold to the present owner, Horace Lyon of Woodland Hills.

Russ has been a man of fine civic spirit and of great generosity and there is no organization, church, or youth group in the community which has not, through the years, been the beneficiary of his philanthropic spirit in the donations of food and meat for various affairs, and monetary gifts for their various activities. He has been the sponsor of several of the baseball teams in the community, a member of the Chamber of Commerce, and community service groups and active in every phase of the community life.

The METHODIST MEN enjoyed another dinner Wed. at White Oak Hall, served by members of the Esther Circle. The Rocket-dyne film "Unchained Goddess" was shown, and Pres. Bill Schrader presided over the meeting.

Mrs. CURTH MYHRE, Parent Education Chairman of the CHATSWORTH PTA, wishes to remind all those interested of the lecture which will be given this Friday evening March 6, at the Chatsworth Park School auditorium by KTTV star Jack LaLane. Mr. LaLane is an internationally known physical culture and nutrition expert and has a message well worth hearing. The time is 8:00 p.m., admission is free, and the public is invited to attend. This is one of the projects of community interest planned by the Chatsworth PTA.

Put yourself into a trance and try to dream up a suitable slogan for our town, which may be used in the forthcoming brochure which the Chamber of Commerce is compiling! Make it short, five or six words, and try to describe in a nutshell just how wonderful our community is. Canoga Park's slogan, for example, is "Canoga Park, the Friendly Community With a Future"; Woodland Hills says, "Country Living City Style". Mail your suggestion to Chamber of Commerce, Box 134, Chatsworth, and mark the word "Slogan" on the outside of the envelope.

dred young people from many churches joined our group. The activities are always exceptionally well-planned with deep spiritual emphasis, and the sign at the entrance of the camp "One mile nearer to God" is a vast understatement.

Plenty of snow was on the higher slopes, and just enough in camp for the boys to give the girls a bad time. Saturday afternoon was spent in the higher hills, and it was a tired, wet group that returned dinner.

It has been said that the worst thing about Winter Camp is that it ends too quickly, and this is certainly true, for the counselors as well as the young people. The group left on Friday afternoon and returned late Sunday afternoon.

The Chatsworth FOURSQUARE CHURCH announces a series of special meetings beginning March 8, nightly at 7:30 (except Monday and Saturday). The speaker will be Richard DuBois, who held the titles of Mr. U.S.A. and Mr. Universe. He worked in night clubs until about a year and a half ago when he became a Christian, and has a wonderful testimony to present. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these meetings.

The CHATSWORTH LEGION AUXILIARY, in session Wednesday, had a busy meeting conducted by the president, Mrs. Aileen Randall. The Unit is planning their annual birthday dinner for the Legion Post on Wednesday, March 18, and we understand it is to be a turkey dinner. Legionnaires and their families and members of the Auxiliary and their families are all invited.

The group is also planning their pre-Easter food sale for Saturday, March 28.

Monday, February 16, was their night to entertain at the Sepulveda Hospital, and this time the hostesses, Mrs. Katherine Slater and Mrs. Virginia Somerville took a moving picture with them for the evening's entertainment. Refreshments were served to the men after the showing of the film, by the hostesses, Mdms. Kay Slater and Virginia Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. ROY ROGERS are enjoying an extended from Dale's mother, Mrs. W. H. Smith, and her aunt, Mrs. P. P. Brewster of Italy, Texas. They plan to remain until after the Easter season.
