

WEEKS COLONISTS
HEAR GOOD TALKS

The regular business meeting of the Weeks Colony held Saturday evening at the community center on the corner of W. Filadelfia and the community singing, with Miss E. Philippi at the piano. President Charles Weeks called the meeting to order. A report by the committee on the interests for a list of the colonists was made and several checks submitted, one of which was accepted and the secretary instructed to purchase a supply of stationery for those desiring same.

CHATSWORTH COUNCILS

Dr. Wm. Mattson has for the last 30 days been chief engineer for the Weeks Weldon trucking outfit. Harry Asay and Raymond Hawthorn are out of college this year and are looking for the interesting work of the back again.

REALTY COMPANY REPORTS SALES

The Owensmouth Realty company reports the following sales consummated during the first five days of October: Twenty-one lots, three fourths acre on Shoup avenue at Owensmouth, owned by O. F. Sharp of Los Angeles. Mr. Sharp intends to put on the market as an exclusive restricted investment subdivision located exclusively by the Owensmouth tract, owned by Mrs. C. A. Falkhous, near Ross street, near James Capelli, who intends to build a tract of 12 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, and a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, near Joseph Bauer of Los Angeles. Mr. Bauer will also build a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on the property he has just purchased on the corner of Owensmouth and Sherman streets, near the north avenue to the Christian Science church site. Residence property located near Owensmouth, owned by A. R. Hilly-dool on Alabama street, near the corner of 11th street, intended to build three homes, immediately.

OVER THE HILLEY

San Fernando trustees are taking steps to secure a site for a new 12-room school building to be erected at Laskerham. A recreation hall, for the use of the Laskerham residents, will be built at Laskerham. The newly organized Masonic lodge at Laskerham received 20 members from the grand lodge in session in San Francisco last week. The members of the Smith Plumbing and Electric company at Van Nuys, recently some time ago. Mr. Marsden, has been changed to the Rankin Electric and Radio company, P. O. Marston, City of Orange. Mr. Marsden is in cooperation with the Rankin Electric, but purchases his materials from the Valley plumbing mill at Van Nuys. He is a brother-in-law of A. D. Gentry.

CHAS. BAER OF LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND HIGH POMEROY REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION AND LOCAL SPEAKERS GAVE TALKS

The membership drive of the Owensmouth Chamber of Commerce added fifty new members to that organization within the past two weeks. The new members were the guests of honor at a banquet in the dining room of the community center last evening. About a hundred new members were added to the organization.

CITY SYSTEM NOW HAS 15,000 METERS IN USE

The chief electrical engineer, Sattergood, of the municipal bureau of power and light issued a statement to the effect that the city water works bureau has built 195 miles of electric lines, which required the setting of 9,500 meters. The city now has 28,000 electric services; has put in 15,000 meters, and has 100,000 meters in the city.

SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY

There will be a concert of sacred music in the Community church on Sunday evening, October 21, under the auspices of the First Presbyterian church of Los Angeles. A quartet from the First Presbyterian church will consist of anthems, duets, trios and solos under the direction of Mrs. Wetzell. Some 200 persons have already expressed many thanks in Owensmouth to the choir and soloists. The program soloist, and Mr. Bishop the organ soloist.

CORNELL NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Mary Newman of Los Angeles is visiting her home, Mrs. Ed. J. and Mrs. George Lewis have returned to Los Angeles with their daughter at Santa Barbara. Mrs. Marvin Bondi is spending a few days in Los Angeles. Mrs. Charles Barrett has sold his home at Los Angeles. Mrs. J. P. Taylor is in Los Angeles for a few days. Mrs. M. J. Crowbridge is at present in Los Angeles. Mrs. J. F. Chicago is a guest at the home of her brother, W. J. and Mrs. Edward Majonier will visit California on their first-of-October trip. Captain and Mrs. A. W. Merry are in Los Angeles. A brush fire Sunday burned over an area of about 200 acres. There was no property loss.

PEOPLE HEARD OF

He assured his hearers that his company was ready to assist in every way in the promotion of the general welfare of the California.

CHAS. BAER OF LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND HIGH POMEROY REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION AND LOCAL SPEAKERS GAVE TALKS

The membership drive of the Owensmouth Chamber of Commerce added fifty new members to that organization within the past two weeks. The new members were the guests of honor at a banquet in the dining room of the community center last evening. About a hundred new members were added to the organization.

CITY SYSTEM NOW HAS 15,000 METERS IN USE

The chief electrical engineer, Sattergood, of the municipal bureau of power and light issued a statement to the effect that the city water works bureau has built 195 miles of electric lines, which required the setting of 9,500 meters. The city now has 28,000 electric services; has put in 15,000 meters, and has 100,000 meters in the city.

SACRED CONCERT SUNDAY

There will be a concert of sacred music in the Community church on Sunday evening, October 21, under the auspices of the First Presbyterian church of Los Angeles. A quartet from the First Presbyterian church will consist of anthems, duets, trios and solos under the direction of Mrs. Wetzell. Some 200 persons have already expressed many thanks in Owensmouth to the choir and soloists. The program soloist, and Mr. Bishop the organ soloist.

CORNELL NEWS NOTES

Mrs. Mary Newman of Los Angeles is visiting her home, Mrs. Ed. J. and Mrs. George Lewis have returned to Los Angeles with their daughter at Santa Barbara. Mrs. Marvin Bondi is spending a few days in Los Angeles. Mrs. Charles Barrett has sold his home at Los Angeles. Mrs. J. P. Taylor is in Los Angeles for a few days. Mrs. M. J. Crowbridge is at present in Los Angeles. Mrs. J. F. Chicago is a guest at the home of her brother, W. J. and Mrs. Edward Majonier will visit California on their first-of-October trip. Captain and Mrs. A. W. Merry are in Los Angeles. A brush fire Sunday burned over an area of about 200 acres. There was no property loss.

WEEKS COLONISTS HEAR GOOD TALKS

The regular business meeting of the Weeks Colony held Saturday evening at the community center on the corner of W. Filadelfia and the community singing, with Miss E. Philippi at the piano. President Charles Weeks called the meeting to order. A report by the committee on the interests for a list of the colonists was made and several checks submitted, one of which was accepted and the secretary instructed to purchase a supply of stationery for those desiring same.

CHATSWORTH COUNCILS

Dr. Wm. Mattson has for the last 30 days been chief engineer for the Weeks Weldon trucking outfit. Harry Asay and Raymond Hawthorn are out of college this year and are looking for the interesting work of the back again.

REALTY COMPANY REPORTS SALES

The Owensmouth Realty company reports the following sales consummated during the first five days of October: Twenty-one lots, three fourths acre on Shoup avenue at Owensmouth, owned by O. F. Sharp of Los Angeles. Mr. Sharp intends to put on the market as an exclusive restricted investment subdivision located exclusively by the Owensmouth tract, owned by Mrs. C. A. Falkhous, near Ross street, near James Capelli, who intends to build a tract of 12 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, and a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, near Joseph Bauer of Los Angeles. Mr. Bauer will also build a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on the property he has just purchased on the corner of Owensmouth and Sherman streets, near the north avenue to the Christian Science church site. Residence property located near Owensmouth, owned by A. R. Hilly-dool on Alabama street, near the corner of 11th street, intended to build three homes, immediately.

OVER THE HILLEY

San Fernando trustees are taking steps to secure a site for a new 12-room school building to be erected at Laskerham. A recreation hall, for the use of the Laskerham residents, will be built at Laskerham. The newly organized Masonic lodge at Laskerham received 20 members from the grand lodge in session in San Francisco last week. The members of the Smith Plumbing and Electric company at Van Nuys, recently some time ago. Mr. Marsden, has been changed to the Rankin Electric and Radio company, P. O. Marston, City of Orange. Mr. Marsden is in cooperation with the Rankin Electric, but purchases his materials from the Valley plumbing mill at Van Nuys. He is a brother-in-law of A. D. Gentry.

CHAS. BAER OF LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND HIGH POMEROY REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION AND LOCAL SPEAKERS GAVE TALKS

The membership drive of the Owensmouth Chamber of Commerce added fifty new members to that organization within the past two weeks. The new members were the guests of honor at a banquet in the dining room of the community center last evening. About a hundred new members were added to the organization.

CITY SYSTEM NOW HAS 15,000 METERS IN USE

The chief electrical engineer, Sattergood, of the municipal bureau of power and light issued a statement to the effect that the city water works bureau has built 195 miles of electric lines, which required the setting of 9,500 meters. The city now has 28,000 electric services; has put in 15,000 meters, and has 100,000 meters in the city.

WEEKS COLONISTS HEAR GOOD TALKS

The regular business meeting of the Weeks Colony held Saturday evening at the community center on the corner of W. Filadelfia and the community singing, with Miss E. Philippi at the piano. President Charles Weeks called the meeting to order. A report by the committee on the interests for a list of the colonists was made and several checks submitted, one of which was accepted and the secretary instructed to purchase a supply of stationery for those desiring same.

CHATSWORTH COUNCILS

Dr. Wm. Mattson has for the last 30 days been chief engineer for the Weeks Weldon trucking outfit. Harry Asay and Raymond Hawthorn are out of college this year and are looking for the interesting work of the back again.

REALTY COMPANY REPORTS SALES

The Owensmouth Realty company reports the following sales consummated during the first five days of October: Twenty-one lots, three fourths acre on Shoup avenue at Owensmouth, owned by O. F. Sharp of Los Angeles. Mr. Sharp intends to put on the market as an exclusive restricted investment subdivision located exclusively by the Owensmouth tract, owned by Mrs. C. A. Falkhous, near Ross street, near James Capelli, who intends to build a tract of 12 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, and a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, near Joseph Bauer of Los Angeles. Mr. Bauer will also build a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on the property he has just purchased on the corner of Owensmouth and Sherman streets, near the north avenue to the Christian Science church site. Residence property located near Owensmouth, owned by A. R. Hilly-dool on Alabama street, near the corner of 11th street, intended to build three homes, immediately.

OVER THE HILLEY

San Fernando trustees are taking steps to secure a site for a new 12-room school building to be erected at Laskerham. A recreation hall, for the use of the Laskerham residents, will be built at Laskerham. The newly organized Masonic lodge at Laskerham received 20 members from the grand lodge in session in San Francisco last week. The members of the Smith Plumbing and Electric company at Van Nuys, recently some time ago. Mr. Marsden, has been changed to the Rankin Electric and Radio company, P. O. Marston, City of Orange. Mr. Marsden is in cooperation with the Rankin Electric, but purchases his materials from the Valley plumbing mill at Van Nuys. He is a brother-in-law of A. D. Gentry.

CHAS. BAER OF LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND HIGH POMEROY REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION AND LOCAL SPEAKERS GAVE TALKS

The membership drive of the Owensmouth Chamber of Commerce added fifty new members to that organization within the past two weeks. The new members were the guests of honor at a banquet in the dining room of the community center last evening. About a hundred new members were added to the organization.

CITY SYSTEM NOW HAS 15,000 METERS IN USE

The chief electrical engineer, Sattergood, of the municipal bureau of power and light issued a statement to the effect that the city water works bureau has built 195 miles of electric lines, which required the setting of 9,500 meters. The city now has 28,000 electric services; has put in 15,000 meters, and has 100,000 meters in the city.

WEEKS COLONISTS HEAR GOOD TALKS

The regular business meeting of the Weeks Colony held Saturday evening at the community center on the corner of W. Filadelfia and the community singing, with Miss E. Philippi at the piano. President Charles Weeks called the meeting to order. A report by the committee on the interests for a list of the colonists was made and several checks submitted, one of which was accepted and the secretary instructed to purchase a supply of stationery for those desiring same.

CHATSWORTH COUNCILS

Dr. Wm. Mattson has for the last 30 days been chief engineer for the Weeks Weldon trucking outfit. Harry Asay and Raymond Hawthorn are out of college this year and are looking for the interesting work of the back again.

REALTY COMPANY REPORTS SALES

The Owensmouth Realty company reports the following sales consummated during the first five days of October: Twenty-one lots, three fourths acre on Shoup avenue at Owensmouth, owned by O. F. Sharp of Los Angeles. Mr. Sharp intends to put on the market as an exclusive restricted investment subdivision located exclusively by the Owensmouth tract, owned by Mrs. C. A. Falkhous, near Ross street, near James Capelli, who intends to build a tract of 12 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, and a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on Van Ness street, south of Sherman way, near Joseph Bauer of Los Angeles. Mr. Bauer will also build a tract of 10 lots, 128 feet on the property he has just purchased on the corner of Owensmouth and Sherman streets, near the north avenue to the Christian Science church site. Residence property located near Owensmouth, owned by A. R. Hilly-dool on Alabama street, near the corner of 11th street, intended to build three homes, immediately.

OVER THE HILLEY

San Fernando trustees are taking steps to secure a site for a new 12-room school building to be erected at Laskerham. A recreation hall, for the use of the Laskerham residents, will be built at Laskerham. The newly organized Masonic lodge at Laskerham received 20 members from the grand lodge in session in San Francisco last week. The members of the Smith Plumbing and Electric company at Van Nuys, recently some time ago. Mr. Marsden, has been changed to the Rankin Electric and Radio company, P. O. Marston, City of Orange. Mr. Marsden is in cooperation with the Rankin Electric, but purchases his materials from the Valley plumbing mill at Van Nuys. He is a brother-in-law of A. D. Gentry.

CHAS. BAER OF LOS ANGELES CHAMBER OF COMMERCE AND HIGH POMEROY REGIONAL PLANNING COMMISSION AND LOCAL SPEAKERS GAVE TALKS

The membership drive of the Owensmouth Chamber of Commerce added fifty new members to that organization within the past two weeks. The new members were the guests of honor at a banquet in the dining room of the community center last evening. About a hundred new members were added to the organization.

CITY SYSTEM NOW HAS 15,000 METERS IN USE

The chief electrical engineer, Sattergood, of the municipal bureau of power and light issued a statement to the effect that the city water works bureau has built 195 miles of electric lines, which required the setting of 9,500 meters. The city now has 28,000 electric services; has put in 15,000 meters, and has 100,000 meters in the city.

